

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF GREATER ORLANDO WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ORLANDO, Fla. (July 14, 2015) – Habitat for Humanity of Greater Orlando recently appointed three new members to its board of directors:

- William Andrews, senior pastor of the Heart of Mercy Community Church and executive director of Mercy Drive Ministries
- Steven R. Nordstrom, division president, America's Home Place, Inc.
- Virginia L. Whittington, director of regional partnerships, MetroPlan Orlando

"We are thrilled to welcome William, Steven and Virginia to the Habitat family," said Erin Gray, board chair of Habitat Greater Orlando and senior vice president, legal and assistant general counsel at CNL Financial Group. "In addition to their individual professional expertise, their combined drive to make a positive change in our community will be a valuable asset as we look toward the future success of Habitat Greater Orlando."

Pastor Andrews is a recognized community leader in the Mercy Drive area. His involvement includes serving as a representative on the Central Florida Regional Commission on Homelessness and co-founding the Mercy Drive Corridor Initiative.

Nordstrom's experience includes more than a decade as a construction executive, having worked with several builders across the state of Florida. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Construction and Construction Business Management from Texas A&M University.

Whittington's community service includes serving on the Career Source Youth Advisory Committee, the Central Florida Urban League's Youth Advisory Committee and the Orange County League of Women Voters Transportation Committee. Whittington earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Public Administration from the University of Central Florida.
