

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF GREATER ORLANDO WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ORLANDO, Fla. (Nov. 9, 2015) – Habitat for Humanity of Greater Orlando recently appointed three new members to its board of directors:

- Robert Carr, partner, tax services, RSM US LLP
- Vivian Gonzalez-Padilla, director of finance and accounting search, Steven Douglas Associates
- Pete Small, chief financial officer, Del-Air Electrical Services

“We are glad to welcome Robert, Vivian and Pete to the Habitat family,” said Erin Gray, board chair of Habitat Greater Orlando and senior vice president, legal and assistant general counsel at CNL Financial Group. “Their areas of expertise combined with their passion for giving back to the community are a great fit as we continue to strive for success with Habitat Greater Orlando.”

Carr brings more than 20 years of public accounting experience as a new board member. He serves as RSM’s Tax Practice lead for North Florida and focuses on technical tax issues within a variety of industries. Carr earned a Bachelor of Science in Business and Master of Accountancy in Taxation from Brigham Young University.

Gonzalez-Padilla’s experience as an executive search professional spans more than a decade, having worked with mid-market to Fortune 500 companies in the areas of accounting, financial reporting, treasury, and finance searches for mid-level management to “C” level executives. Gonzalez-Padilla earned a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management from Florida International University and her MBA from the University of Central Florida.

Small has more than 30 years of experience in the accounting industry, specifically with both public and privately-held companies in the home building, land development, mortgage and title services segments. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Accounting from the University of Central Florida, and is a licensed CPA.
